KILLING TIME

Do You ever get Bored? You know the times when there is ABSolutly nothing to DO. the Bong Hits Are Gone, the Girls Are Gone AND Your Left sitting AROUND JERKING OFF. Not me I SKATE. SKATERZ ARE NEVER BORED. there ALWAYS BUCKING it up SOMEWHERE. WAITING FOR the BUS (if there not SKATING there) WAITING FOR DINNER or JUST ABOUT ANYtime. One-time for me WAS WHEN I HAD to take MY VAN IN FOR A FRONTEND ALIGNMENT THAT WAS to take 30 minutes. Well AFTER 3½ HOURS HAD PASSED, me AND tommy HAD Fully AND severly THRASHED these CURBS Out IN FRONT of the tire store. FRONTside ollie kick ups ~~on~~ ON the CURB WAS the deck. We would take turns SEEING WHO COULD BLAST the HIGHEST ollie. Ollie Height WAS Getting into the feet then Tom Rolls BACKWARDS AND POPS AN OUTRAGOUS 180° ollie with Lots of AIRTIME. I WAS stoked. SUDDENLY this UNKNOWN GROUP of CURBS FROM ACROSS the PARKING LOT started to ATTACK. Tom KICKED toward them AND Rock n Roll SLIDE one to DEATH! While I ATTACKED WITH Full Length DOUBLE Axle GRINDS. they Kept COMING AT US AND we Kept GRINDING. Finally the CURBS Retreated. the OWNER of the tire store CAME out AND Yells "WHAT the Hell ARE YOU DOING to my CURBS"? "YOUR BREAKING them up". I Replied. "they were getting out of HAND." He LAUGHED AND SAID MY VAN WAS DONE. Cool, we HEADED out to Folmer. Along the WAY We talked ABOUT the New Shit we learned AND perfected While Killing time.

DONEL DISTRIBUTORS SUCK!!!!

In a lot of cases mail order is the way to go, maybe the only way for some, and ive allways had pretty good luck with mail order.
Tom thumb is the best place to order shit from. Donel Distributors blows and Ill tell you why. Six months ago I ordered a norcon helmet and a jammer deck from them.They claim to be the fastest.WRONG. Three weeks later I called them and they said that they never got my order. So I went to the bank to put a stop on my money order.The bank traced it back to Texas and found out that Donel had in fact deposited the money order in a account in Richardson,Texas. I was pissed. So I called Donel back and said that the bank had traced it back and said that you had deposit in a account.Well they then suddenly found myorder form that I had sent them. Donels reply was"Why did you order a jammerboard? N.H.S. hasnt made them for a long time"
Meanwhile in A[illegible] friends were getting there jammers left and right(i can name 5 people that got jammers resently). I told the guy that and he said they hadnt been able to get those in a long time".Then I said"wellwhy didnt you just send my helmet and a refund for the difference insted of blowing the whole thing off".He then said he would send me my helmet andthe check would come seperatly.I said "cool" Another 2 weeks later I finally got my helmet and a bunch of stickers for my trouble.(they were these shitty no name stickers from years ago)Well I waited another 2 weeks and no refund check ever came.I called them again(by this time I had spent almost $15.00 in long distance fone calls) and they didnt know what was going on and treated me like I was just somebody trying to get something for nothing.Needless to say I was pissed As of today the bank couldnt help.They needed a reciept to prove that I had recieved something but Donel cleverly didnt send a reciept. So I guess Im just shit out of luck.I think that blows big time. I just wonder how many other skaters Donel Distributors have ripped off.

WEST PARK RIP

WES GeHING A BLURRY BACKSIDe AiR

Well what the hell I dumped a quart of oil in the car and said "What the hell lets go" Chip was my only companion on.....

DEATH SKATE TO DETROIT

We started out as soon as we got up at about 2 oclock. We were talking about the Misfitz, but both of us were really thinking about Endless Summer. I was so ready to skate. I could tell the skate energy was drawing me closer. We were about half way there(Detroit) when some assholes had a muffler problem. So I let him pass.

Boy I felt like an asshole of course right as we entered a construction zone I realized it was my muffler. After are repair job of cloth and electrical tape we were park bound again. Well 10 miles and one repair job latter we dicided to stop at Chips house in Detroit.

Well this time we used a can and some wire. So about 4:00 we made it to the skate park. After padding and streching we decided to pay and discovered that we only had an hour to skate. We both went for it! I kickpumped till I felt good than I went for the first dropin on a half pipe in my life. I made it down the transition an bit. After a bunch I was used to wheelers. We skated as hard as we could. Chip was pulling off sess slides, airs, ollies and rock and rolls Hes hot! The pool was great! it was the third time that I had been there. I was getting the carve(you may not understand the rush unless you had made the same sort of personnal achievment on a skate). So with a little confidence I went for the blast. I pushed as hard as I could and made the carve as smoth as possible. RATATATATATATATATAT tile! I thought YAH!! as I almost lost my balance but befofe the day was over I new what grinds and 3 wheels out were.

I was getting high on that even tho chip was pulbing airs. So finnally we were getting tired so we skated a littlemore an totally needed a recharge. Right about then they called us in (park is closed now) to our surprize they let us skate a half hour longer. We were stoked. So back to my car, a moody 69 volvo with 160,000 miles onit fortunatly it wasnt an automatic we had to push start it. It started and we went riskingly to the Misfitz. Little did I know it was there last show. For me my first thrash show and my first time seeing the fits. Glen was right in front of me. He had dry heaves on stage. I was centerstage I held my ground untill all the unawhere stage divers cleaned it up then went for it. What a day my car stared for the last time. We made it home. about half waywe got loud again but fuck the muffler.
